1 When even the Polaiks who are ex officio Keepers of pounds of their Villages could not be denied Commission as will be seen from the papers relating to the Chief Comm's order dt 18-11-1873, it certainly cannot be expected that other people will manage the pounds for nothing. There appears therefore to be no objection to give Commission to the pound Keepers at the Devarayadurga farm, provided they are not remunerated in any other way for doing this business.

2 But are not the persons whom Col Jones has nominated already drawing pay as members of the Devarayadurga farm staff. If so I understand is a duty done specially in addition to their ordinary work how can any Commission be given. The order appointing these men as Pound Keepers is silent as to Commission and it cannot be given without further orders of Govt.
